

SAVE THE DATE

“MY BROTHER’S KEEPER—A Whitehouse Initiative”

EDUCATING OUR AFRICAN AMERICAN MALES: A FOCUS ON DISCIPLINE

Theme: “Empowering Black Males to Achieve Educational Success”

For teachers, students, parents, administrators, faith based leaders, business and community

When: Saturday, January 21, 2016 8:00 a.m.- 4:00 p.m.

Where: Asa Mercer Middle School 1600 S.
Columbian Way, Seattle, WA

Workshop Include: Learning Styles, Recognizing and analyzing oppressive policies and procedures that create barriers for African American Males who are being disciplined at an alarming rate, the workshop will also provide ways to eliminate discipline disproportionality through Restorative Justice model and will provide ways to effectively address behavior and other complex school issues.

RSVP: sabse.09alliance.17@gmail.com
Or 206-725-7138

Clock Hours
Available

Continental Breakfast and Lunch will be served

Sponsored by Seattle Alliance of Black School Educators and Partners, Seattle Public Schools Family Engagement, Race and Equity, African American Males Scholars, One America, U. S. Department of Education, Mount Zion Baptist Church Phyllis Wheatley Circle