

SAVE THE DATE

“MY BROTHER’S KEEPER—A WHITEHOUSE INITIATIVE” EDUCATING OUR AFRICAN AMERICAN MALES AND MALES OF COLOR:

A FOCUS ON STRENGTHENING STUDENT ENGAGEMENT

(Classroom Management: Student Engagement Strategies and Solutions)

Theme: “Empowering Black Males and Males of Color to Achieve Educational Success”

For educators, students, parents and families, administrators, faith based leaders, community members, business and community based organizations

A Continental Breakfast and Lunch will be served.

RSVP: sabse.09alliance.17@gmail.com
Or: SABSE P. O. Box 22035, Seattle,
WA 98122

When: Saturday, January 21, 2017 9:00 a.m.- 3:00 p.m.

Where: Mercer Middle School, 1600 S. Columbian
Way, Seattle, WA 98108

Workshop Include: Learning Styles, Recognizing and analyzing oppressive policies and procedures that create barriers for African American Males who are being disciplined at an alarming rate, the workshop will also provide ways to eliminate discipline disproportionality through Restorative Justice model and will provide ways to effectively address behavior and other complex school issues.

Con

Clock Hours
Available

Sponsored by Seattle Alliance of Black School Educators, One America, Seattle Public Schools Family Engagement and Race and Equity, African American Males Advisory Committee (Closing the Opportunity Gap), South King County Discipline Coalition, Mount Zion Baptist Church Phyllis Wheatley Circle (Church and Community).