INEQUITIES: AN INTRODUCTION TO THE MAYOR'S EDUCATIONAL SUMMIT

at

Mount Zion Baptist Church
1634 Rev. Dr. S. McKinney Avenue
Seattle, WA 98122
Tuesday, March 15, 2016
4:30 p.m.-6:30 p.m.

As Part of SABSE'S Monthly Meeting

COMMUNITY VOICES AND LOCAL LEADERS WILL INFORM THE CITY'S EDUCATION AGENDA BY ANSWERING THE FOLLOWING QUESTIONS:

- What barriers do Seattle students face?
- What are solutions to overcome these barriers?
- What can the city do to support the solution?
- Who needs to work together to make that happen

The Summit is scheduled for April 30, 2016. Mayor Murray will host an Education Summit to guide the City in its work supporting Seattle's students, families and schools. Seattle Schools and several community agencies will be cohosting a series of community conversations to listen to families, students and community.

THIS MEETING IS HOSTED BY SEATTLE ALLIANCE OF BLACK SCHOOL EDUCATORS, THE CITY OF SEATTLE, SEATTLE PUBLIC SCHOOLS (Equity and Race and School and Family Partnerships), AND THE UNITED BLACK CHRISTIAN CLERGY

THE SUMMIT IS FOR PARENTS, STUDENTS, FAMILIES, TEACHERS AND COMMUNITY ADVOCATES

THE GOALS OF THE SUMMIT ARE TO ADDRESS THE FOLLOWING BUT NOT LIMITED TO:

- Disparity in educational opportunity and outcomes that disproportionately impact Students of color and students from lower income families, discipline, school to prison pipeline, graduation rates/status, cultural competence
- Opportunity/Academic Gaps, community engagement
- Community Partnerships
- My Brother's Keeper Initiative

A presentation by Dr. Debra Sullivan on "Cultivating the Genius of Black Children: Strategies to Close the Achievement Gap in the Early Years" will be the focus of SABSE'S discussion.
